Brave fishermen helped bringing more than 95 % of the Danish Jewish population to safety in Sweden. In Dragør your guide will share his/her personal stories about the miraculous rescue of 7,000 Danish Jews in October 1943. In Dragør you will also enjoy your packed lunch boxes in the charming old warehouse at the heart of Dragør fishing village.

Day 3 - The Hamlet Castle and WW2

7-hour tour north of Copenhagen

Enjoy a beautiful tour along the Öresund strait separating Denmark and Sweden, as we head to Elsinore north of Copenhagen.

Visit to Kronborg Castle

A firsthand experience of the most famous and impressive castle in Danish history, Kronborg Castle. The castle has been the residence of the royal family and is also referred to as the Castle of Hamlet. It is told, that this is where Shakespeare got his inspiration, to write his play about Hamlet.

Visit to Hornbæk - The Danish Cattskills

After the visit to Kronborg Castle, we continue to the village of Hornbæk. Here you will enjoy lunch and hear about the significant presence of Jewish families from Copenhagen in this area. We will visit the Hornbæk Synagogue, the only functional Synagogue in Denmark outside Copenhagen with services every shabbat during the summer season.

Gilleleje town - Hope and despair of the Danish Jews during WW2

We continue to the city of Gilleleje, only 5 miles from Hornbæk. This city played a major part in the rescue of the Danish Jewry during WW2. More than 1.400 Jews escaped through Gilleleje, but the city also saw disaster, when more than 80 Jews were captured hiding in the attic of the Gilleleje Church. They were all sent to the concentration camp Theresienstadt, in the Czech Republic. We will tell you dramatic stories and take you on a walk visiting some of the 7 bronze plaques, placed in October 2013 to commemorate the 70-year anniversary of the rescue during October 1943.
